

Advice if you are worried about a fellow student

When might I be concerned?

- The person tells you they have a problem that's getting them down
- There's a sudden change in their appearance, especially weight loss or hygiene
- You're aware that they regularly make themselves vomit after eating

✖

